Special to the APPEAL

Cleveland's Boom.

CHICAGO, June 21.—There is nothing but Cleveland in the air here now, and I have no doubt that he will be the nominee on the first ballot.

He will walk over his opponents as easily as Harrison did over his.

He is regarded as the man who beat Blaine and now when it is considered that it is conceded that Harrison is weaker than Blaine it is regarded by Democrats as a logical argument that Cleveland can beat Harrison.

"But he didn't beat him before," say the Hill men.

The Cleveland men argue that the Republican party is not united now and that the bugle call of Blaine to the forces is only a theatrical blast for effect and not for real campaign use.

So it is that gradually the opposition to Cleveland has melted away and now it is regarded as a certain thing in the hotel corridors that the first ballot will settle the business.

Meanwhile the city is full of men who, while they regard Cleveland's nomination certain, they regard it as a weak nomination believing that the party will lose New York.

Indeed the New York delegation officially declare that the nomination of Cleveland would imperil the State.

The result will be very much as it was in Minneapolis. The old office holders under Cleveland are clamoring for his renomination and there is a ground swell of public clamor for him from those who think because he beat Blaine when the latter was counted out in '84 in New York—that he is invincible. There are a few contests on the tapis, but in the interest of harmony they have been withdrawn or amicably disposed of. About noon as the committee assembled a rain storm began, but now it is over and as prominent men enter the hall, cheer after cheer goes up.

Owens, of Kentucky is made temporary chairman. Owens takes the platform amid rousing cheers and in a short, well-timed speech says that "Sand, Unity and Harmony is all the democracy needs to repeat the success of 1884."

The Convention adopts the rules of the last Convention, and then cause the roll call of States to select the various committees.

While this is in progress, Whitney comes in and there is a roar of applause from the delegates and the galleries, as hundreds press round him to shake him by the hand.

The next event of importance was the offerings of sympathy for James G. Blaine in his recent bereavement. For a minute men bowed their heads in the presence of Blaine's great sorrow and it would have been in keeping with the idea of condolence had the silence continued, but some impulsive men started cheering and soon it sped over the hall. When it had subsided Sweet of Maine, extended thanks to the convention in behalf of Blaine and his family.

The Convention then adjourned until tomorrow.

For some weeks past there has been newspaper talk that the building in which the Convention meets is regarded unsafe.

The carpenters have been hard at work repairing these defects and there was no one in the vast audience today who feared a collapse of the roof. Indeed, there are people who are so very anxious to attend a session of a National Convention, that they would not hesitate even if they really thought the roof would fall.

The place was packed to the utmost capacity today, and no further fears are entertained of its safety.

It is reported tonight that Tammany Hall has agreed to support Cleveland and Gray, and that the nomination will be made by acclamation is a foregone conclusion. Hill's name will not be presented to the Convention.

The basis of compromise by which Cleveland made his peace with the Tammany Tiger is not known definitely, but it is quite certain that Tammany Hall lost nothing in the deal and will control the patronage of New York. This is regarded as a terrible fall for Hill.

ALFRED BALCH.

Free Silver Planks.

Chicago, June 21.—Among the resolutions before the Platform Committee, today, for its consideration were a number on tariff and silver. The former were decidedly radical, declaring substantially for tariff for revenue only. There were half a dozen resolutions on finances, those from silver States and some from the South declaring emphatically for free silver.

To Pull His Nose.

London, June 21.—Harry Vane Millbank came over to London from Paris for Ascot week on Monday. He said he and Borrowe visited Paris for the purpose of pulling the nose of Joseph Pulitzer, of the New York World, owing to that journal's criticisms upon their conduct in the Drayton affair. Seeing Pulitzer and finding that he was afflicted with partial blindness and was in very delicate health, they decided to wreak their vengeance upon some other member of the World's staff when opportunity should arrive.

Asphyxiated.

San Francisco June 21.—This afternoon an unknown man was found unconscious in a room at No. 22 Quincy Place, asphyxiated by gas. He is expected to die.

Queer Explosion.

Somerset, Ky., June 21.—Yesterday, during a severe lightning and thunder-storm that passed over this section, the general store of W. H. Ryan, at Parmleysville, Wayne county, was struck by lightning, and two kegs of powder exploded. The force of the explosion threw the heavy iron safe through the roof and wounded all the occupants of the room, fifty in number. Several physicians were at once called in to alleviate the sufferings of the unfortunate victims. Not one single occupant of Ryan's store escaped severe injury. Many, it is thought, will die from the effects of the stroke.

How to Vote.

New York, June 21.—Mr. T. J. O'Donnell, delegate at large from Colorado, leaves for Chicago tomorrow morning on the Pennsylvania limited. He was asked how many Silver States would cast their votes in the Convention for Cleveland, and his answer was: "As the Irishman said, 'Every wan av thim, but wan and that wan is nary wan.'"

A Crank.

A gentleman from the outside precincts went to John Egans residence last night, claimed relationship, took possession of the parlor, running his hands through the family album and looked paralyzed when John asked him what he wanted. He was requested to leave and finally the host had to toss him out on the grass plot when a struggle ensued in which the stranger was abated. Egan got out a warrant and Ed Patterson showed him his room in short notice. The fellow seems to be demented.

The White Metal.

Those who are lovers not of beauty will scarce admire those lovers' knots of silver on exhibition at Cagwin and Notewares. They are designed for hair and lady pins and watch fobs. Call and inspect them and if unappreciative of their charms, buy Keats' poems and learn that "a thing of beauty is joy forever."

Racing.

On the 5th and 6th of July there will be racing at the track with suitable purses.

Over thirty head of fast horses will be here and the races will include trotting and running. Some very fast stock will enter these races and good sport can be counted on.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

A Card From M. Cohn.

ED APPEAL—The following appears in the Tribune of last evening:

The report being circulated about Carson by M. Cohn that I made a statement reflecting on the German population, is a willful and malicious lie. E. J. PARKINSON.

Since my veracity has been publicly questioned in the matter I will say that Mrs. Thomas H. Wells is my authority for this statement, a lady whose word none of the Parkinson people will dare dispute. She told me that Ed Parkinson was angry with Judge Wells for selling the house to Leonhard and remarked to her:

"We don't want any of those stinking Dutchman in this neighborhood."

It strikes me that these people are putting on considerable airs of late since they have—through the generosity of some politicians—been able to move up from their old quarters into a neighborhood regarded as exclusive to the four hundred.

This "stinking Dutchman," Mr. Leonhard, is as honorable a man as lives in this city, and pays his bills and his word is as good as his bond, which is a good deal more than Ed Parkinson can say for himself. No Dutchman in the State of Nevada would be allowed to mingle with his countrymen if he had E. J. Parkinson's record. M. COHN.

ALL SORTS.

The signal flags indicate that the weather will moderate.

Preparations are already being made to receive our visitors on the 4th.

Four delegates will represent the Dayton Silver League in the Silver Convention at Reno.

Sheriff Stewart of Esmeralda Co., brought in his trotting mare Esmeralda from Hawthorne last evening.

George Kitzmeyer has painted up his store for the Fourth. Other people should imitate this good example.

There are seven railroad melodramas on the road this season, but "The Fast Mail," the original, stands pre-eminent above them all.

Byron Close took 50,000 infant brook trout away from the hatchery last night to distribute in the streams around Elko and Battle Mountain.

In a speech in the United States Senate the other day, Senator Morgan said Alabama would give its vote for the People's party candidate for President and several other Southern States would do likewise.

The News has passed its first birth day. The APPEAL extends its congratulations to its present proprietress on the signal ability displayed in the conduct of her journalistic enterprise.

The way certain of our contemporaries have of making writers sign the telegrams they send from Minneapolis, Chicago, etc., is a good one. The discriminating reader knows what telegrams to skip and therefore saves time.—S. F. Report.

It is rumored that there will be a change of time on the C. P. R. R., July the 3th, by which the morning west bound train will arrive in Reno at 6:30 A. M., instead of 8:40 A. M., and the evening west bound overland mail, will arrive at 6:30 P. M., instead of 8:30 P. M., as at present. There will be no change in the arrival of the east bound trains. This change will probably cause the V. & T. train to leave here at 4:30 in the afternoon.
